

Brief description of the program

Profession

Experts in banking are multifaceted experts with an analytical mindset, who are able to predict. This is a profession that is of great importance. This means that skilled workers who are able to establish a mechanism for carrying out monetary operations both within and outside the state are necessary in any economically developed country.

Educational Process

The educational process is based on:

- attracting highly qualified university teachers to conduct lectures and seminars through the use of interactive forms and playgrounds;
- attracting specialists from the banking sector and implementation of practical exercises, trainings and master classes, discussion platforms, as well as heading the process of implementing educational and practical training, scientific management of graduate projects of graduates.

Disciplines

- ✓ Finance
- ✓ Money, credit, banks
- ✓ Corporate culture, leadership and team building
- ✓ Investments
- ✓ Financial management
- ✓ Securities Market
- ✓ Banking
- ✓ Marketing
- ✓ Budget system of the Russian Federation
- ✓ Banking support of foreign economic activity
- ✓ Bank risk management
- ✓ Analysis and planning of activities in a commercial bank
- ✓ Insurance
- ✓ Bankruptcy and financial recovery of the enterprise
- ✓ Financial market
- ✓ Investment activity of a commercial bank
- ✓ Bank marketing
- ✓ Distressed asset management

Practical Training

The program includes three types of practical training. They are aimed to consolidate and put into practice acquired special knowledge. They also contribute to the development of students' skills in conducting independent research.

Students undergo practical training in banking institutions.

Career

Graduates can be employed in divisions of commercial banks as bank specialists, heads of structural divisions; financial and analytical services; heads of regional offices, as well as in other bank structures. The program allows you to continue training in master's degree program "Banking" and "Assessment of business value and corporate finance."