

Brief description of the program

Profession

Bank officers have the following responsibilities:

- verification of customers compliance with the procedure of work with cash liquidity;
- calculation of the minimum balance in the cash department;
- making a forecast of cash turnover;
- registration and issuance of payment cards;
- maintaining a file of unpaid settlement documents;
- analysis of the financial position of the borrower;
- conducting an operation on the interbank loan market;
- settlements on export-import processes;
- issuing bank statements.

Educational Process

The educational process uniquely joins theoretical and practical disciplines. Banking specialists are intensively involved in the educational process. They conduct practical classes, trainings and master classes, discussion platforms. Such an organization of the educational process allows students to study special features of:

- analytical work related to the financial activities of banks and other credit institutions;
- analysis and use of any information for financial and economic calculations;
- development and justification of financial and economic performance indicators of credit organizations;
- analysis and identification of financial and economic risks, preparation of relevant forecasts;
- assessing financial stability of a credit institution;
- guidance on the development of financial policies and development strategies for a credit institution or its subdivision;
- designing a corporate policy for the development of a credit institution;
- standardization of the activities of a credit organization.

Disciplines

- ✓ Financial markets and financial institutions
- ✓ Corporate finance
- ✓ Strategy and modern management model
- ✓ Analysis and assessment of the activities of a commercial bank
- ✓ Financial risk hedging instruments
- ✓ Formation of assets and liabilities of a commercial bank
- ✓ Banking trade finance instruments
- ✓ Methodology of scientific research
- ✓ Business foreign language
- ✓ Mobile and Internet banking
- ✓ Controlling in a commercial bank
- ✓ Value-based management in a commercial bank

Practical Training

The curriculum includes three types of practical trainings:

- 1) practical training in obtaining initial professional skills;
- 2) practical training in obtaining professional skills and experience of professional activity (including technological practice, pedagogical practice);
- 3) pre-graduation practical training.

Places for practical trainings are as follows: credit organizations, non-credit financial organizations (microfinance organizations, consumer cooperatives), and insurance organizations.

Career

Program graduates are trained to work as middle and senior managers in financial sector, financial markets, as managers of leading national and international banks, investment, financial, audit and consulting companies.

In addition, graduates can start their careers with such jobs as:

- financial analyst
- manager in bank back-offices and front-offices
- specialist in credit departments
- broker and dealer for the implementation of stock transactions
- brand manager
- advertising and PR manager
- commercial director of an enterprise (organization)
- banking agent, etc.