

Brief Description of the Program

Profession

Preschool teacher is to help children discover the world and themselves. Their professional activity is focused on holistic development and upbringing of children during the pedagogical process.

Program graduates organize educational work taking into account the development of interests, aptitudes and needs of children, conduct outreach work with parents on issues of training and education of preschool children.

Educational Process

Highly professional teaching staff are involved in teaching. Classes are held in the form of classical lectures, seminars and laboratory classes. It is as early as the first year of studies that students intensively immerse themselves in the profession, studying basic disciplines, including General Pedagogy, Age Psychology, General Psychology, etc.

The program is designed to study a wide range of methods of preschool education related to the provision of full-fledged education, upbringing and development of preschool-age children.

Disciplines

- ✓ Age anatomy and physiology
- ✓ General psychology
- ✓ Developmental psychology
- ✓ Pedagogical psychology
- ✓ General pedagogy
- ✓ Modern educational technologies
- ✓ Preschool pedagogy
- ✓ Preschool-age psychology
- ✓ Basics of pediatrics and hygiene of preschool children
- ✓ Mathematics and methods for the formation of mathematical concepts with preschool children
- ✓ Basics of methods and technologies of preschool education
- ✓ Workshop on family counseling (preschool age)
- ✓ Psychological and pedagogical workshop
- ✓ Psychology and pedagogy of the game
- ✓ Formation of communication skills with older preschoolers, Alternative preschool education systems
- ✓ Correction and development work with preschoolers
- ✓ Pre-school speech training

Practical training

Much attention is paid to the organization of educational practice in the summer school camp and teaching practice. Practical trainings are organized in summer camps, schools of the city of Tambov and the Tambov region, educational centers and the Department of Education and Science of the Tambov region.

Career

Graduates can be employed as teachers and methodologists in pre-school educational institutions; specialists in pre-school education in education authorities, family teachers in centers for children and parents pedagogical support; in institutions of additional education and centers for pedagogical support.