

Brief Description of the Program

Profession

A primary school teacher is one of the most esteemed and respected jobs, since personal development, success in learning activities, beliefs, worldview and moral qualities largely depend on the first teacher.

A primary school teacher is engaged in training and education of primary school-aged children. The main responsibility of a primary school teacher is organization of educational process in a primary school.

Educational Process

Scientific disciplines about a person, their psychology, training and education take a significant part in the curriculum. Courses related to the development of the world civilization, world and national culture, literature, pedagogical and information technologies have been introduced in the program.

A highly professional teaching staff is involved in teaching. Classes are held in the form of classical lectures, seminars and laboratory classes. It is in the first year of their studies that students intensively immerse themselves in the profession, studying basic disciplines, such as General Pedagogy, Age Psychology”, General Psychology, etc.

The program includes the study of a wide range of problems of primary school modern didactics and private methods of primary education related to the provision of full-fledged education, upbringing and development of a primary school student, mastering the technologies of searching, processing, storing and applying relevant scientific information.

Disciplines

- ✓ Age anatomy and physiology
- ✓ Developmental psychology
- ✓ Pedagogical psychology
- ✓ General pedagogy
- ✓ Modern educational technologies
- ✓ Theoretical foundations of the Russian language
- ✓ Methods of teaching Russian language and literature
- ✓ Primary education pedagogy
- ✓ Theoretical foundations of mathematics
- ✓ Methods of teaching mathematics
- ✓ Basics of teaching methods in primary school subjects
- ✓ Informatics and methods of teaching informatics
- ✓ Literary and methodical training of teachers,
- ✓ Basics of counseling activities
- ✓ Theory of literature and reading practice
- ✓ Practical writing,
- ✓ Basics of children's rhetoric,
- ✓ Formation of spelling skills with junior students
- ✓ Basics of reading culture.

Practical training

Much attention is paid to the organization of educational practice in the summer school camp and teaching practice. Practical trainings are organized in summer camps, schools of the city of Tambov and the Tambov region, educational centers and the Department of Education and Science of the Tambov region.

Career

After successfully completing the educational program, graduates can be employed as teachers in various educational institutions; specialists in primary education at education management departments, teachers in out-of-school children's institutions; in kindergartens, sanatoria, children's out-of-town complexes; specialists in institutions involved in education and upbringing of children.